With Guest Speaker

MARISA MOSELEY

University of Wisconsin-Madison Women's Basketball Head Coach

Moseley was named head coach of the Badgers this past March after nearly a decade as an assistant with the University of Connecticut and three successful years as head coach at her alma mater, Boston University. During the COVID19-influenced 2020-21 season, she led the BU team to a 12-3 finish and a spot in the conference tournament championship game for the first time in program history.

In addition, she was a founding member of the Patriot League's Anti-Racism Commission, a member of U-Conn's Diversity Council, and the University of Denver's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee.

Also Starring...

Graduates of the JMTS program who are now teaching for the School District of Janesville and current scholarship recipients working hard toward their degrees.

The JMTS scholarship creates opportunities for students of color to become teachers for the School District of Janesville. Using entirely private funds raised by volunteers, JMTS awards qualified students college scholarships of up to $25,000 over five years. Recipients must obtain a degree in education, state teacher certification, and employment with the District upon graduation. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CALL THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION AT 608-758-0883 OR VISIT WWW.CFSW.ORG
